ITEM 3. Source and Amount of Funds or Other Consideration.

As of December 1, 2015: (i) AILP owns 2,518,826 shares of Class A Common Stock (the “AILP Shares”), which were acquired with the funds of AILP; (ii) Palomino owns 3,549,174 shares of Class A Common Stock (the “Palomino Shares”), which were acquired with the funds of Palomino; (iii) TFLP owns 642,026 shares of Class A Common Stock (the “TFLP Shares”), which were acquired with the funds of TFLP; and (iv) TML owns 689,974 shares of Class A Common Stock (the “TML Shares,” and collectively with the AILP Shares, the Palomino Shares and the TFLP Shares, the “Shares”), which were acquired with the funds of TML. AMLP may be deemed to beneficially own the Shares as a result of being the general partner of AILP and TFLP and the investment adviser of the Funds. API may be deemed to beneficially own the Shares as a result of being the general partner of AMLP. Mr. Tepper may be deemed to beneficially own the Shares as a result of being the sole stockholder and president of API. The Reporting Persons may therefore be deemed to beneficially own 7,400,000 shares of Class A Common Stock, of which 2,518,826 shares, 3,549,174 shares, 642,026 shares and 689,974 shares, are beneficially owned by each of AILP, Palomino, TFLP and TML, respectively, representing 9.25%, 3.15%, 4.43%, 0.80% and 0.86%, respectively, of the issued and outstanding shares of the Class A Common Stock of the Issuer as of December 1, 2015.

All of the shares of Class A Common Stock held by each Fund have been acquired using the working capital of such Fund.

The filing of this Schedule 13D shall not be construed as an admission that AILP, Palomino, TFLP or TML is for the purposes of Section 13(d) or 13(g) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended (the “Exchange Act”), or otherwise, the beneficial owner of any of the shares of Class A Common Stock held by the other of them. Pursuant to Rule 13d-4, each of the Funds disclaims all such beneficial ownership and the Reporting Persons expressly declare that the filing of this Schedule 13D shall not be construed as an admission that any such person is, for the purposes of Section 13(d) and/or Section 13(g) of the Exchange Act or otherwise, the beneficial owner of any securities covered by this statement held by any other person.

ITEM 4. Purpose of the Transaction.

The acquisition of the Shares by the Reporting Persons was for investment purposes. AMLP, on behalf of the Funds (in their capacity as stockholders and holders of senior notes issued by TerraForm Power Operating, LLC, an affiliate of the Issuer), sent a letter to the Issuer's board of directors on November 25, 2015. A copy of the letter is filed as Exhibit C to this Schedule 13D. The letter admonished the members of the Corporate Governance and Conflicts Committee of the Issuer's board of directors to discharge their fiduciary duty and investigate the propriety of certain recent transactions and the overall relationship between the Issuer and the Issuer's sponsor, SunEdison Inc. ("SUNE").

Meanwhile, the Issuer delayed disclosure of the details surrounding the abrupt resignation on November 20, 2015 of four of its board members, which followed SUNE's appointment of additional members to the Issuer's board of directors. Three of the resignations were the result of a disagreement with SUNE's designation of interested parties to the Issuer's board of directors, and two of the resigning members stated their belief that, as a result of SUNE's actions, they would no longer be able to "protect the interests of the [Issuer's] stockholders" in their capacity as board members.

The Reporting Persons are independently exploring potential claims of impropriety against the parties (including their respective advisors) concerning the Issuer's and SUNE's transactions described herein.

The Reporting Persons acquired the shares of Class A Common Stock for investment purposes based on the belief that such securities, when purchased, represented an attractive investment opportunity. Although the Reporting Persons have no specific plan or proposal to acquire additional securities of the Issuer, each of the Reporting Persons expects to continuously review such person's investment in the Issuer and, depending on various factors, including but not limited to, the price of the shares of Class A Common Stock, the terms and conditions of the transaction, prevailing market conditions, the Issuer's financial condition, business, operations and prospects, other investment opportunities, liquidity and diversification objectives of the Reporting Persons and/or other investment considerations as such Reporting Person deems relevant, may at any time or from time to time, and subject to any required regulatory approvals, acquire additional shares of Class A Common Stock, preferred stock or other securities convertible into or exercisable or exchangeable for Class A Common Stock from time to time on the open market, in privately-negotiated transactions, directly from the Issuer, or upon the exercise or conversion of securities convertible into or exercisable or exchangeable for Class A Common Stock.

Although the Reporting Persons have no specific plan or proposal to dispose of shares of Class A Common Stock, each Reporting Person also may, at any time and from time to time, subject to compliance with applicable securities laws and regulatory requirements, dispose of or distribute some or all of its Class A Common Stock or such other securities it owns or may subsequently acquire depending on various factors, including but not limited to, the price of Class A Common Stock, the terms and conditions of the transaction, prevailing market conditions, the Issuer's financial condition, business, operations and prospects, other investment opportunities, liquidity and diversification objectives of the Reporting Persons and/or other investment considerations. Each Reporting Person may, from time to time, enter into stock trading plans intended to satisfy the requirements of Rule 10b5-1 of the Exchange Act.

The Reporting Persons may participate in and influence the affairs of the Issuer through the exercise of their voting rights with respect to the shares of Class A Common Stock owned by the Reporting Persons.

Also, consistent with the investment purpose, the Reporting Persons may engage in communications with one or more stockholders of the Issuer, one or more officers of the Issuer and/or one or more members of the board of directors of the Issuer and/or one or more representatives of the Issuer regarding the Issuer, including but not limited to its operations, business plan and objectives and the composition of the board of directors. The Reporting Persons may discuss ideas that, if effected, may result in any of the following: the acquisition by persons of additional shares of Class A Common Stock or the disposition of shares of Class A Common Stock held by the Reporting Person or other persons, an extraordinary corporate transaction involving the Issuer and/or changes in the board of directors or management of the Issuer.

Except to the extent the foregoing may be deemed a plan or proposal, the Reporting Persons have no present plans or proposals which relate to, or could result in, any of the matters referred to in paragraphs (a) through (j), inclusive, of the instructions to Item 4 of Schedule 13D. The Reporting Persons may, at any time and from time to time, review or reconsider their position and/or change their purpose and/or formulate plans or proposals with respect thereto and carry out any of the actions or transactions described in paragraphs (a) through (j) of the instructions to Item 4 of Schedule 13D, to the extent deemed advisable by the Reporting Persons.

LETTER SENT BY APPALOOSA MANAGEMENT L.P. TO THE MEMBERS OF THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS OF
TERRAFORM POWER, INC., DATED NOVEMBER 25, 2015

November 25, 2015

TerraForm Power
7550 Wisconsin Avenue, 9th Floor
Bethesda, MD 20814

Attention: Board of Directors

Gentlemen:

We write in respect of Appaloosa Management LP's ("AML") holdings of TerraForm Power, Inc. ("TERP") common equity and senior notes. We note with interest this week's announced changes to the TERP management team and Board of Directors. Notwithstanding your explanation in the release, we find that "aligning the company's strategic focus around acquiring projects from its Sponsor" offers little apparent benefit for TERP stakeholders and raises concern for obvious conflicts between the interests of TERP and its "Sponsor", SunEdison ("SUNE").

Until recently, TERP's business purpose was to act as a vehicle to hold and finance a high quality portfolio of fully-developed wind and solar power assets that were supported by long-term power purchase agreements with large, investment-grade corporate counterparties. Isolating these projects within a ring-fenced vehicle made sense for both TERP and SUNE, as the most efficient cost of capital could be obtained by segregating them from the operational, developmental and construction risks of SUNE's main operating businesses.

The July announcement of the acquisition of the Vivint Solar ("VSLR") portfolio of residential rooftop assets marks an unfortunate departure from this business model and appears to serve the sole purpose of promoting SUNE's desire to acquire VSLR's development and operating assets, rather than enhancing the quality and value of TERP's holdings. Indeed, the shift to weaker counterparties (homeowners) and the higher risk profile inherent in these assets (small rooftop panels) also appears to disproportionately benefit the "Sponsor's" incentive distribution right ("IOR") at the expense of significant downside financial risk to TERP. Worse yet, is SUNE's stated intention (revealed through the release of an Interim Agreement between SUNE and TERP) to place 500MW per year of these inferior assets in TERP for the next 5 years.

Disclosure of the precise details of this acquisition plan is long overdue, as well. So too, are the details surrounding the distinct possibility that TERP will be forced to accept a note from SUNE (which is of dubious credit quality and market value) due to a shortfall in the market value of the assets to be delivered in the first leg of the VSLR portfolio transaction relative to the $922 million purchase price (i.e., the "Advanced Amount" mandated under the Summary of the Note Terms in Exhibit E to the Purchase Agreement between SUNE and TERP). Given the erosion in the market value of comparable rooftop operators to VSLR (SunRun and Solar City, for example) the face value of that note will likely need to be considerable (but of suspect worth given the obligor).

The reconfiguration of the Invenergy transaction announced November 9th is no better for TERP stakeholders and is obviously intended for the sole benefit of SUNE. These modifications will hand off SUNE's responsibility for a $388 million equity warehouse commitment to TERP -- yet another departure from TERP's traditional role of owning permanently-financed, income-producing assets. The investment also strains TERP'S resources and significantly raises its leverage and financial risk profile. In downgrading TERP's debt to a highly-speculative rating of B2, Moody's cited the change in operating arrangement brought about from both the Vivint and Invenergy transactions, and the inherent financial strain thereof. Greater linkage to the "Sponsor" also figured significantly in Moody's analysis.

Thus, it is obvious that the deterioration in TERP's security prices and credit profile this month results from (among other things): (1) the transmission of financial stress related to its "Sponsor's" ambitious growth objectives and over-extended financial commitments; and (2) TERP's incomplete and selective disclosures. TERP's "reliance on third party acquisitions" has little bearing on either of those factors. We note the advertised increase in the number of independent directors on TERP's board and trust that the Corporate Governance and Conflicts Committee (the "Conflicts Committee") will appropriately investigate these and any other related-party transactions to ensure that they are conducted for the benefit of TERP stakeholders. Recent rumors of discussions between SUNE and VSLR regarding "strategic options" for the proposed merger transaction, if true, may represent an opportunity for the Committee to exercise its independence and relieve the financial pressures on both TERP and its "Sponsor" from this harmful transaction. Such efforts would be strongly supported by Appaloosa.

As previously suggested, substantial further disclosures are incumbent on TERP so that investors can assess the full impact of the pending transactions, the relationship between TERP and its "Sponsor", and the circumstances surrounding the changes in TERP's management and Board. We look forward to such disclosures and stand ready to meet and discuss any of the issues raised by this letter. In the meantime, we expect the Board and the Conflicts Committee to respect and defend the integrity of TERP's corporate identity and the interests of its stakeholders. We reserve all rights accordingly.

Sincerely,

David A. Tepper
President
